

OAGF, NCS TO COLLABORATE ON REVENUE GENERATION

The Accountant General of the Federation, Dr. Oluwatoyin Madein has expressed readiness to collaborate with the Nigeria Custom Service to increase revenue for the country.

Dr. Madein gave the assurance when the Acting Comptroller-General of Customs, Adewale Adeniyi paid her a courtesy visit in Abuja.

She stressed that the OAGF will co-operate and collaborate with all revenue-generating agencies to achieve the Federal Government's revenue targets for economic development.

She noted that the Nigeria Custom Service was one of the key organisations of the Federal Government, adding that the agency plays a positive role in revenue generation in the country.

In his remarks, the Acting Comptroller-General of Nigeria Custom Service, Adewale Adeniyi said his mission to the Treasury House was to seek support and establish a robust working relationship with the Office of the Accountant General of the Federation.

Bawa Mokwa

Director (Press)