OAGF IS CONSISTENT IN PUBLICATION OF REVENUE DISTRIBUTION

The Office of the Accountant General of the Federation (OAGF) has explained that it is consistent in publishing the details of the monthly revenue allocation by the Federation Accounts Allocation Committee (FAAC) to the three tiers of government.

In a statement in Abuja, the OAGF said it is up to date in the publication of the monthly revenue distribution, adding that this effort would be sustained.

“In line with the policy of the Office of the Accountant General of the Federation to keep Nigerians abreast with government financial inflows and expenditure, the Office has completed the publication of the monthly revenue distribution for 2023”.

The OAGF said the revenue distribution for 2023 was published monthly in print and online media as well as on its website.

According to the OAGF, the details of the December 2023 revenue which was shared in January 2024 has already been published on its website.

The Office reaffirmed its determination to entrench transparency and accountability in government financial transactions and uphold the ideals of prudent financial management.
